A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

The holidays can be very difficult for some people. Please check in on your neighbors. The library has a "Christmas Raffle" and "Guess How Many M&M's" happening during December. Don't forget our town holiday celebration on 12/14 from 2-6 pm. The library will have Story Time inside with cookies and milk and smores and hot cocoa out back in the park from 2-4:30 pm.

Happy Holidays, Robyn

Give the Gift of Books

It is difficult to imagine a better gift than a book, particularly for a child. One of my most cherished childhood memories is when my grandmother took me to the local bookstore for my eighth birthday so that I might choose a boxed set of books as my gift. Perhaps my lifelong love of reading and career choice influence my opinion about the value of a gift book, but there is research to support the ownership of books for children. Having even a small home library has been proven to support literacy skills and improve academic skills. So there really is no better gift than a book. This year as you consider giving, do not forget to give the gift of books. MS
