Help Wanted

The library is looking for someone to shovel and plow this winter. If you are interested contact Robyn at the library.

Mah Jongg Club

Have you ever read a book where the characters are sitting around a Mah Jongg table and wondered "what is that game they are playing?" Now is your chance to find out. Mah Jongg is a 19th Century Chinese tile-based game. Compared to rummy players rely on skill, strategy, and luck. One of our dear patrons, Pat Davey, loved the game. With money gifted in her memory and the gift of her Mah Jongg set, we will host The Pat Davey Mah Jongg Club at the library. Join us on June 7th from 2-3:30 and learn something new!

Artist of the Month

This month we are featuring the work of Mike Mussen. Mike is a local craftsman who has been involved in the building trades since he was a young man. Now Mike prefers the fine details and craftsmanship of smaller pieces such as charcutier and cheese slicing boards. Come in and see the beautiful pieces Mike will have for sale during the month of June.

"I think the health of our civilization, the depth of our awareness about the underpinnings of our culture and our concern for the future can all be tested by how well we support our libraries."

BOOK REVIEWS FROM OUR PATRONS

If you are an admirer of the artwork of Vincent VanGogh than The Secret Life of Sunflowers by Marta Molnar is a must read.

When Hollywood auctioneer Emsley Wilson finds her famous grandmother's diary while cleaning out her New York brownstone, the pages are full of surprises. The first surprise is, the diary isn't her grandmother's. It belongs to Johanna Bonger, Vincent van Gogh's sister-in-law.

Johanna inherited Vincent van Gogh's paintings. They were all she had, and they weren't worth anything. She was a 28 year old widow with a baby in the 1800s, without any means of supporting herself, living in Paris where she barely spoke the language. Yet she managed to introduce Vincent's legacy to the world.

The inspiration couldn't come at a better time for Emsley. With her business failing, an unexpected love turning up in her life, and family secrets unraveling, can she find answers in the past?
