"THE ONLY THING YOU ABSOLUTELY HAVE TO KNOW IS THE LOCATION OF THE LIBRARY." -Albert Einstein

A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

I am super excited about the endless possibilities for programs at the library. Starting on 3/7 Beverly Thwaites will be teaching crocheting. If you have a special skill or idea for a program, I'd love to chat with you. New books are coming in on a regular basis, stop by! Robyn

Coming Attractions
Get ready for the Solar Eclipse on April 8th when our region will be in the path of totality. Ed Guenther, an astronomy enthusiast, will be at here at the library on Saturday, April 6th from 9-3 with demonstrations and information. We will hand out eclipse safety glasses to individuals until they are gone.

" A library outranks any other one thing a community can do to benefit its people."
-Andrew Carnegie

ARTISAN OF THE MONTH

Trisha Best of Mace Chasm Pottery will be our Feature Artisan for March. Her pottery will be on display and for sale all month. Trisha will share her love of clay by hosting moldable clay workshops for kids and adults during March. To learn more about Trisha check out her website: www.macechaspottery.com

Book Reviews From Our Patrons

Margaret has been indulging her love of a good, “can’t put it down” thriller with David Baldacci’s series about a female FBI agent, Atlee Pine. The story is centered around Pine’s search for her abducted sister, but other crimes and mysteries come to light in the process. A good read and you learn a lot about the workings of the FBI.

Lorna read and enjoyed “This is Happiness” by Niall Williams. A novel set in a small village in Ireland about to finally get electricity, a development that once complete, would leave behind a world that had not changed for centuries.
