

NEWS FROM THE KEESEVILLE FREE LIBRARY NOVEMBER 2023 VOL 1, ISSUE 2

"THE ONLY THING YOU ABSOLUTELY HAVE TO KNOW IS THE LOCATION OF THE LIBRARY." -Albert Einstein

A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

November is a time of gathering and thanksgiving. All month long we will have a gratitude jar at the library where patrons can write down something they are grateful for. I am grateful to live in such a compassionate and protective community. We really do care about our neighbors; I know not all places are like the North Country. Please reach out to those who may not have family at Thanksgiving and ask them to join your table. GiGi's On the River will be holding a Thanksgiving dinner for a donation only. Please stop by the library to take out a book about gratitude or Thanksgiving! - Robyn

NOVEMBER ART EXHIBIT

This month we are featuring the work of Keeseville resident Gary Bezio. Gary has been creating one of a kind rustic wood pieces for over 30 years. His works at the library include cell phone stands, coat rack, cedar/birch hope chest, coffee table, end tables, side tables, bowls, and a large assortment of charcuterie boards. Stop by and see for yourself!
